1. Claims 3-9 and 11-17 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
3. As to claim 3, the prior arts of record do not anticipate or render obvious to one skilled in the art a method of fabricating an in-plane switching mode liquid crystal display device comprising forming several elements as claimed, more specifically the limitations such as forming array elements that includes curve shaped field-generating electrodes on a first substrate wherein the first and second substrates have a rectangular shape having a long side and a short side and the liquid crystal layer is oriented by the rubbing using a rubbing roll wherein the rubbing roll has a length corresponding to the short side.
4. As to claim 15, the prior arts of record do not anticipate or render obvious to one skilled in the art an in-plane switching mode liquid crystal display device, comprising various elements as claimed, more specifically array elements including curve shaped field-generating electrode formed on the first substrate, wherein the first and second substrates include first and second cell regions having sizes different from each other and a dummy region, a plurality of first liquid crystal cells are formed in the first cell region and a plurality of second liquid crystal cells are formed in the second cell region such that the plurality of first cells and the second cells have a rectangular shape, wherein a longer side of each first cell is parallel to a first direction and a longer side of each second cell is parallel to one of the first direction and a second direction perpendicular to the first direction.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
